STRIKE BREAKS OUT AFRESH IN RUSSIA

l Revolutionists and Social Demrats Join Hands in Their Demands, d Another General Strike Is Ordered.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 16.—The protet of St. Petersburg, has summoned r general strike beginning to- noon. This action was decidn last tonight by the workmen's committee which is now comly under the domination of the sorevolutions whose leaders openly m that their ultimate object is pletely overthrow monarchy and tablishment of a Democratic re- This also is the real aim of brothers, the Social-Democrats of d, but the proclamation issued this in the background and apy supports the popular sympaPolish autonomy and the indigagainst the application of the sentence being imposed on the nstadt mutineers. committee has appealed to the committee throughout Russia to the movement and has also apto the railroad men with the bringing about another general

One of the most potent argu- used at the meeting of workdelegates last night was that in ht workmen will have their efn behalf of the lives of the mu- to increase the sympathy felt e workmen's cause, and help to win over the army and navy cause of freedom.

e of the delegates, who, having reat question of national economy most in their minds, namely, how increase the incomes with diminishlabor, protested that the political ike would interfere with the fight an eight-hour day, but they were dely waved aside by the majority o claimed that it would be time ough to deal with the economy quesons when they had finished with the tocracy.

The strike commenced promptly at e Baltic and Warsaw railroad and is announced that all the other lines ill follow. As the workmen of many establishments beyond the Moscow and Neva gates and the Neva Rostroff districts promised to obey the strike man. date, those of the Putiloff and other factories declined to join in he strike.

The various professional organizations which participated in the other general strike are also lukewarm regarding the decision of the workmen. Nevertheless, in the present excited state of public opinion they may be swept off their feet and especially should some untoward incident occur. Should the general strike spread over the country the government's position might be rendered desperate. It is impotent now to deal with many of the questions confronting it, and might be terrorised into making further concessions. The Ancient Kingdom of Georgia following the lead of Finland and Poland, has now plucked up courage and has demanded autonomy.

The attempt to restore order in the government of Kutaisan, trans-Caucasia, with Russian troops has so incensed the populace that the municipal council of Kutais, capital of the government of that name, has telegraphed to both Count Witte and the viceroy advising against further attempts at coercion.

Rioting Continues at Vladivostok.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 16.—The latest reports from Vladivostok indicate that the rioting has not yet been suppressed. Both the sailors and the fortress artillerymen participated in the out break. The commandant lost his head. The situation got beyond his control, and energetic measures were taken until a large part of the city had been destroyed. The entire population is seeking refuge on the vessels in the harbor.

According to one report from Vladivostok three hundred rioters, mostly sailors and artillerymen, were killed or wounded during the first day of the outbreak.

Jews Relief Fund Growing.

New York, Nov. 16.—More than $35,000 was added yesterday to the fund being raised in this country for the relief of the victim of what is described in a circular which will be sent out today by the national committee in this city, as the greatest calamity that has befallen Israel since the fall of Jerusalem.

With yesterday's subscription received by Mr. Schiff the fund being collected by the central committee here has passed the $200,000 mark.

WANT TO ANNEX ISLAND.

Isle of Pines Desires To Become Portion of the United States.

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 16.—S. H. Pearcy, vice president of the isle of Pines company and a leading spirit in the movement to establish independence of the island and annex it to the United States, is a native of Williamson county, this state, and a former resident of Nashville. He is a brother of J. L. Pearcy, consul to Colon, under President Cleveland's administration.

Some years ago Mr. Pearcy went to Havana, Cuba. When the exodus of rich Spaniards began, he saw a great future in the isle of Pines and he went there and secured options on 150,000 of the 700,000 acres of land comprising the island. He then went to New York and formed the Isle of Pines company, which closed the options on his holdings, and this company has practically dominated the country ever since.

WOMAN GETS $15,000 VERDICT.

Famous Breech of Promise Case Is Ended in Chicago.

Chicago, Nov. 16.—A jury today returned a verdict of $15,000 in favor of Miss Mabel Beland against John O'Neil, a former alderman and a prominent contractor, for breach of promise of marriage.

The case has been on trial for several weeks and has excited much interest. Miss Beland was for several years an inmate of O'Neil's home and continued to reside as his housekeeper after the divorce of Mrs. O'Neil from her husband. She brought suit claiming that O'Neil had promised to marry her and demanded $50,000 for his failure to adhere to the contract. She declared he had made with her.

O'Neil denied the charge absolutely, and fought the case with every resource in his power. During the trial it was shown by the evidence that O'Neil and Miss Beland had taken trips to Marquette, Mich., and other places in the northwest.

Creek Indians in Washington.

Washington, Nov. 16.—A delegation of Creek Indians having business with the interior department arrived in the city yesterday from Indian Territory and will remain until congress opens. They are Chittechagoh, Bulahutahgoh, Hutulkeemico and P. Phillips. Hutulkeemico is a former slave of a Creek master before the civil war. The other members of the party do not speak English.

PERSONAL QUARREL CAUSE OF MASSACRE

Details of Terrible Tragedy in China Are Received.

SECRETARY ROOT GETS REPORT

Because of Some Misunderstanding Between Missionaries and Natives the Trouble Arose and Caused Chinese to Attack and Kill Americans.

Washington, Nov. 16.—No boycott; no race feeling but a mere personal quarrel was the cause of the death of the five American Presbyterian missionaries recently at Lienchow, in China, acording to the report made today to Secretary Root by Sir Chentung Liang Cheng, the Chinese minister here.

The minister had with him when he came to the state department a copy of a long telegram from the viceroy of Canton, bearing on this subject. The viceroy reported that Dr. Machle and Miss Patterson, two of the missionaries, who escaped massacre by reason of their temporary absence from Lienchow, had just reached Canton under a strong Chinese guard. According to Dr. Machle and his investigations were shared in by the American consuls' agent, the anti-American boycott had nothing to do with the tragedy, and in fact, that movement had caused no feeling at all in that section of China.

The trouble arose from the holding of a Chinese festival and fair. As an incident to this fair the Chinese erected a pavilion or booth which the missionaries claimed overlapped the mission hospital compound several feet. The missionaries ordered the removal of that part of the building, but before this request could be complied with one of the missionaries went into the grounds and seized several small cannon with which salutes were being fired as a part of the festival. These cannons were held to be sacred instruments by the Chinese. They were finely chased with symbollic designs and gorgeously ornamented for this particular occasion. The Chinese believed that each discharge blew away or destroyed certain malignant spirts hovering about the place. Consequently, according to the report, the seizure of the cannons created at first consternation and then anger and the ill-feeling culminated in the attack upon the missionaries and their death.

Price of Coal Advancing.

Chicago, Nov. 16.—Coal dealers who admit that the prices are advancing, say it is due to the fact that there is a car famine and that coal cannot be shipped ino Chicago from the coal regions. "The price of all soft coal has advanced from 25 to 50 cents a ton," said the manager of one coal company. "The supply of coal now standing in cars on the various roads in Chicago," say the fuel dealers, "would not last an hour in the face of a sudden demand for hurried delivers, that generally follow the first fall of snow."

Curiosity Prevented an Escape.

Marion, O., Nov. 16.—Mrs. S. H. Burton visited the county jail and it was through her cursosity that she discovered a plot for a wholesale jail delivery. She peeped through the grub hole of the jail and saw Ernest Smith and Henry Green, convicted train robbers, boring through the wall of the prison. Smith and Green had cowed the other prisoners with threats of death if they gave them away, and they were industriously boring away when the woman saw them and notified the guard. The men had their pockets filled with pepper, but they were overpowered before they could use it.

Killed Brother and Self.

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 16.—Fritz Kafitz, 29 years of age, a real estate dealer, last night shot his brother Ludwig, two years of age, twice through the head and once through the heart instantly killing him and then turned the pistol against himself and fired a bullet through his temple, dying on the spot. Fritz left a note saying that he had killed his brother and taken his own life, because he believed the two were a burden to their father and were better off dead.

TALLY SHEETS ARE DEMANDED.

Hearst's Lawyers Secure Order from Judge for Same.

New York, Nov. 16.—Counsel for the Municipal Ownership League has obtained from Justice Armend, in the supreme court, an order directing County Clerk Hamilton to preduce before the board of county canvassers the original tally sheets in his custody at their meeting tomorrow, or, in default of so doing, to show cause today why he should not do so.

Justice Amend also restrained the board of county canvassers from taking any action with regard to the canvass of the votes until the question as to the production of the tally sheets had been decided.

It was claimed by counsel that the tally sheets were necessary in order that the vote might be properly canvassed.

A similar order was obtained from Justive Dickey, in Brooklyn, against the canvassers of Queens county.

Attorney General Mayer will appear before the grand jury again today and will ask for a large number of additional indictments charging fraud in the election. It is thought the presentation of evidence before the grand jury will take all of the present week.

Body of Murdered Baby Found.

Atlanta, Nov. 16.—Lying on the ground in the woods, with its throat cut, a little baby girl was found near the city, and the coroner has declared it to be a case of willful and deliberate murder, his jury recommending that the governor offer a liberal reward for the apprehension of the murderer. As soon as he was notified of the finding of the dead body of the child Coroner Thompson went to the place on the Peachtree road, with Dr. J. W. Hurt, the county physician, and after empaneling a jury, held an inquest. Dr. Hart examined the body and found that the child must have been several days old before it was killed. Death had resulted from a cut across the throat, which had been made with either a razor or a very sharp knife.

Georgia Methodists to Meet.

Newnan, Ga., Nov. 16.—The North Georgia conference of the Southern Methodist Episcopal church will be opened in the Methodist church next Wednesday, Nov. 22, by Bishop W. W. Duncan, of the Methodist church. The meeting promises to be one of the liveliest in the history of the southern church. A number of matters are expected to come up which will precipitate a warm discussion. Chief amongst these things it is probable will be the several heresy charges against different ministers. It is announced by J. N. Shaw that he proposes to take up the charges against Dr. H. S. Bradley and fight the matte rthrough to a finish.

Trust Company is Administrator.

New York, Nov. 16.—The Lincoln Trust company was yesterday appointed temporarily administrator of the estate of Mrs. Margaretta Todd. Ingersoll Lockwood opposed the motion for a temporary administrator. George Gordong, attorney for Frank Tousey, said last night that this move would unearth important facts within 18 hours. He expects to find the missing will of 1902, and other evidence that may explain the aged woman's mysterious death in Philadelphia, Oct. 28.

Three Persons Asphyxiated.

Paterson, N. J., Nov. 16.—Three deaths were caused last night by the falling of a heavy picture, which broke a gas pipe while the Schroeder family were asleep. Chris Schroeder, his mother, Catherine and her grand-child Ira LaForge, were all asphyxiated. Neighbors who entered the house today found the fallen picture beneath a gas fixture which had been snapped off short. They arrived in time to save the lives of two small children of the LaForge family.

Burned Brother to Spite Mother.

Chillicothe, Ohio, Nov. 16.—David Gillwalter, 13 years of age, who was taken into custody following the death of his younger brother, Arthur, who was burned to death, confessed that he had burned his brother to spite his mother. David said that he had a stick in the fire making a torch of it and caught Arthur and set his clothing on fire. Arthur's body was burned to a crisp.

FARMERS PLAN TO HOLD THEIR COTTON

Will Pledge Themselves Not to Sell Fleecy Staple.

WANT 15 CENTS PER POUND

President of Southern Cotton Association Says that Over Half of the Crop Has Been Sold and That Remainder is Worth More Money.

New Orleans, Nov. 16.—Following the arrival of President Harvie Jordan, the Southern Cotton association today perfected plans for the taking off of the market of 3,000,000 bales of cotton by means of a series of pledges which the farmers will sign themselves, stating their name and address and the amount of cotton they will thus hold.

The cotton held will not be sold for less than 15 cents a pound.

A representative of the association is to be sent into every one of the 817 cotton-producing counties of the cotton belt at once.

When the pledges are signed they will be sent to the central office of the association in Atlanta.

President Jordan says that half of the crop has already been sold at an average of 10 cents, and the spinners must have all the remainder. He believes that 15 cents per pound for the remainder of the crop is a fair price, and it will only average the spinners 12½ cents while they have based all their calculations on 14-cent cotton.

UNABLE TO APPRAISE ESTATE.

Private Papers of Dead Bank Cashier Are In Bad Muddle.

Pittsburg, Nov. 16.—The private papers of T. Lee Clark, the dead mashier of the Enterprise National bank of Allegheny, which are now under examination by the appraisers appointed to determine the value of Clark's estate, are said to show that Clark's outside financial transactions began seven years ago, and that he was interested in many corporations, including several mining ventures. Among his holdings at the time of his death, it is said, was a half interest in a string of high-bred Kentucky horses.

So confusing are the papers that those in charge have no idea when they can complete their work, or what the value of the estate will be. The lawyers for the estate, it is said, do not expect to save any of Clark's assets, except the insurance money, which has been paid to Mrs. Clark.

To Punish Criminal Autoists.

Chicago, Ills., November 16.—The Rev. Father McDonnell, of St. Michael's Roman Catholic church, ended an appeal for the most stringent action against "automobile criminals" made to the West Park board yesterday by declaring that a man would be justified in killing the "criminal autoist who would crush out his life." Father McDonnel's appeal was made when he headed a delegation of church members, property owners and aldermen, who appeared before the park board and presented a petition in which demands were made that radical action be taken against autoists.

Failed to Assassinate Pasha.

Constantinople, Via Sofia, Bulgaria, Nov. 16.—Femi Pasha, the chief of the secret police of the palace, was intended to be the victim of yesterday's bomb outrage. The pasha escaped unscathed, and the explosion did little damage. The bomb was thrown from the roof of a house on the main road of the Pera quarter as Fehmi was passing in a carriage. The attempt on his life is attributed to the Armenians as an Armenian was discovered in the house from which the bomb was seen to be thrown.

Fire Wipes Out Town.

Bluefield, W. Va., Nov. 16.—Fire wiped out the entire town of Burke yesterday entailing a loss estimated between $29,000 and $30,000. Only four dwellings and one store room remain of more than 200 houses, and it was only by heroic work on the part of the volunteers that this small portion of the town was saved.

INTERESTING MEETING.

Historical Meeting Kirby Smith Chapter Highly Entertaining.

The historical meetings of Kirby Smith Chapter, U. D. C., are always greatly enjoyed by the members, but that held at the residence of Mrs. J. M. Graham Thursday afternoon was one of the most interesting and entertaining in the history of the society. There was a large attendance and the reading of the State president's report of the meeting of the national convention at San Francisco was attentively listened to and greatly appreciated. Mrs. H. H. McCreary read a paper on the "Women of the Confederacy," Mrs. F. R. Seawell gave a descriptive sketch of the Florida room at the national museum in Richmond, Va., and Mrs. J. F. McKinstry, Jr., entertained the members with an outline of the monumental work.

A pleasant feature of the meeting was the music by those charming adepts on the piano, Misses Ida Burkhim and Myrtle Fennell.

At the conclusion of the exercises the hostess served elegant refreshments. Mrs. Graham never fails to make her guests feel at home, and the ladies of Kirby Smith always hail with delight notice of meetings to be held at her residence.

JUDGE MASON'S COURT.

Alex Woodward, Charged With Selling Liquor, Was Arraigned.

The circuit court was not the only tribunal grinding Wednesday, as Judge Mason had a little matinee in his office.

Alex Woodward, a negro of Archer, was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Curl upon a charge of selling liquor in a dry county, and was arraigned before Judge Mason upon that charge. After hearing the evidence in the case the defendant was required to give bond in the sum of $500 for his appearance before the grand jury, now in session, and in default went to jail.

Roux Mill Sold.

D. M. Phifer, who has been residing in this city for the past few months, has purchased the grist mill and wood yard of Roux Bros., East Masonic street, and will continue to operate same. Mr. Phifer came to Gainesville from Windsor and is well pleased with the change. He has a great deal of confidence in the future of the city and feels that it will continue to lead as the most important interior town in Florida.

Itching, blind, bleeding, protruding piles. Druggists are authorized to refund money if PAZO OINTMENT fails to cure in 6 to 14 days. 50c.

A DIFFERENCE IN LUNGS.

In the Edinburgh University three human lungs lie side by side. One is of an Eskimo and is snow white. In life, this would be ruddy with rich blood. Another is that of a coal-miner and is black. The other is of a town dweller and is a dirty slate gray, as are the lungs of most city residents. That's why consumption thrives in cities.

One reason why Scott's Emulsion does so much to keep down consumption is because it helps to keep the lungs clean and supplies them with rich, red blood. It makes the lungs germ-resisting. If the body is run down and health is at a low ebb Scott's Emulsion will build it up quickly and permanently.

Important Land Deal.

O. R. Green of Ocala has purchased from D. M. Phifer a tract of land comprising three hundred and sixty acres. The tract is heavily timbered, and it is understood that the new owner will establish a sawmill and tie camp upon the same.

Politeness of Children.

The politeness of children is only skin deep. One cannot help sympathizing with the little London girl who said sleepily to her hostess at a party she had not been old enough to enjoy, "Please, will you tell me which is the lady what's giving this party, 'cause I promised mummy to say, 'Goodby, thank you very much for the nice party,' and I can't go home till I've said it, and—and I do so want to get away from this horrible place!" But one's whole heart goes out to the little boy who, having greatly enjoyed one small insufficient chocolate, was asked sharply, "Well, Johnny, what do you say?" "More," answered Johnny.

Size of the Sun.

We sometimes see a huge ring or halo round the moon, occupying a space in the heavens so large that ninety moons' breadths would but just suffice to span it. Yet the body of the sun would fill all that space ere we had approached within 2,000,000 miles of him. Once on his apparent surface were we permitted to travel thereon and with the speed of an express train it would require five whole years of continuous journeying before we could make the circuit of this orb.

Man's Unreasonableness

Is often as great as woman's. But Thos. S. Austin, manager of The Republican of Leavensworth, Ind., was not unreasonable, when he refused to allow the doctors to operate on his wife for female trouble. "Instead," he says, "we concluded to try Electric Bitters. My wife was then so sick she could hardly leave her bed, and five (5) physicians had failed to relieve her. After taking Electric Bitters she was perfectly cured, and can now perform all her household duties." Guaranteed by all druggists. Price 50c.

A Fantastic Duty.

A fantastic duty falls every fifth year to the lot of the mayor of St. Ives in Cornwall, England, when the bequests left by John Knill, a former collector of customs, are distributed. Accompanied by the borough mace bearers, he has to walk in procession, with ten maids dressed in white and ten old widows, to the monument known as Knill's steeple, round which, to the strains of a fiddle, he and his strangely assorted companions are required to step a measure. Then the bequests, which include £5 for the best knitter of fishing nets and £5 for the best curer and packer of fish, are distributed. After this the trustees adjourn to dinner.

A Man of His Word.

"I've been trying that physician you recommended so highly to me."

"Ah! And you found him all that I said, reliable in every respect, eh?"

"Well, he assured me he would put me on my feet inside of two months."

"And did he do it?"

"That's what he did. I've just sold my automobile in order to pay his bill."

Climb Up.

Get out o' the valley o' Desolation. It's only a step to the hills of Joy, where the stars are shining and the morning breaks in splendor to the music of the trumpets of God.—Atlanta Constitution.

Best Liniment on Earth.

Henry D. Baldwin, Superintendent City Waterworks, Shullsburg, Wis., writes: "I have tried many kinds of liniments, but I have never received much benefit until I used Ballard's Snow Liniment for rheumatism and pains. I think it the best liniment on earth." 25c, 50c and $1. Sold by W. W. Johnson.

Two Sides to It.

Keeker—It costs so much more to live now than it used to. Nokeek—It ought to. It's worth more to live now than it used to be.—Chicago Tribune.

The use of envelopes was scarcely known until after penny postage was introduced.

"I Thank the Lord!"

Cried Hannah Plant of Little Rock, Ark., "for the relief I got from Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It cured my fearful running sores, which nothing else would heal, and from which I had suffered for 5 years." It is a marvelous healer for cuts, burns and wounds. Guaranteed at all drug stores; 25c.

A telegram received yesterday by J. U. Manning, at the home of whom J. H. Cubbage, the night watchman at Kelley's mill, died a few nights ago, bears information that the only surviving relative of deceased is a son, who is residing in Sumter, S. C. At the time of Mr. Cubbage's death, which was rather sudden, no one here knew whether or not he had a family, or if so, where they were located. This fact was published in The Sun, and John Wolfenden of Sampson City, who was acquainted with the deceased, furnished the information.

SUNSTROKES.

The Spanish people are the shortest lived of any in the world. That may be the reason why Alfonso wants to go it while he's young.

The reason why some of our best business men advertise is because it takes two to make a bargain. The advertisement brings the second party.

There are many men who can tell all about running somebody else's business, who never had enough business about them to have one of their own to manage.

It is said that one of the men engaged with pick and shovel in tearing up Union street raised his pick to strike a blow just as the whistle blew for 12 o'clock, and being true to the principles of all city employes, quit further effort and left the pick suspended in the air until time to begin work after dinner.

A man who had heard the conundrum "Why is a married man like a mule?" and the answer "Because his better-half is stubbornness," thought he would get the joke on his wife. He propounded the conundrum, but was surprised to hear his wife's reply: "I don't know unless it is because you were born that way."

The union organizations in the employ of the railroads of the country, consisting of the engineers, firemen, conductors, switchmen and trainmen, have presented a protest to President Roosevelt, opposing freight rate legislation. The coal miners of the South are also opposed to the measure. Every coal miner south of the Ohio river is expected to go into the union to oppose it.

Ocala is having numerous object lessons of late on the temperance question. The death of a man named Brown from the effects of the grog sold there, and the shooting of another man a few days ago, which was brought about by liquor, are very timely for those business men who signed the petition, fearing that their business would be ruined if they got local option.

You can't tell who will be next. Havana was very eager to establish a strict quarantine against Florida ports only a few weeks ago, but now the tables have been turned and we have a chance to keep out the Cubans.

It is gratifying to know that after all the talk and supposed progress on the Panama canal, "actual" work will be commenced in a few months at least.

THE POSTAL TELEGRAPH.

For some months the Postal Telegraph Cable Company has been trying to run a line of wires through Florida. The Western Union has had practically a monopoly of the business for many years. It has contracts with the railroads over whose lines it runs its wires and in return for telegraphic service the railroads distribute material for the keeping up of the wires of the company.

When the Postal attempted to enter the Florida field, says a dispatch from Tallahassee, the railroads, in accordance with their contracts with the Western Union, refused to give it the same advantages in service that they gave the Western Union. The first difficulty that the Postal met was in getting a right-of-way along the tracks of the railroads for the placing of poles. This difficulty was overcome by an act of the last Legislature, which gives the right to condemn rights-of-way and this was done. As soon as the company was to begin wiring its lines, shipments of poles and wires were offered for transportation to the Atlantic Coast Line. The railroad company replied that while it would haul the poles, wires and other materials from one station to another when they were offered for transportation, it declined to furnish a train to distribute them along the tracks as it had done for the Western Union.

On complaint of the Postal Company against the Coast Line the matter came up recently for a hearing before the Railroad Commissioners of Florida. The Postal charged the railroad with discrimination in performing a service for the Western Union that it would not perform for the Postal and petitioned the commissioners to order the discrimination of material to be stopped and to prescribe a reasonable rate for the performance of the service by the railroad company.

The commissioners have rendered a decision in accordance with the request of the Postal Company.

LOOKS DIFFERENT.

Brothers Appleyard and Caldwell are now attacking the Buckman bill. If the excellent missionary work these two able writers are performing today had been given right in their localities previous to the passage of the bill, there would perhaps be no necessity for the agitation of the question now. Certainly two gentlemen who voted for the Buckman bill ought to have been convinced by the character of the arguments which are today being offered. But to some people the bill does not look as good today as it did when it was passed by the Florida Legislature.—Live Oak Daily Democrat.

It is plain to be seen that all fair-minded people in Florida are onto the motives of the Lake City and Jasper papers, and know who is the man behind the guns. The Gainesville people, however, will abide by the decision of the courts and the people in the State. It was a fair proposition and the State Board of Educational Control will do its duty.

To show that the people endorse the conduct of the board, we will state that 14 of the leading papers of the State have published the communication of Chairman Bryan to The Metropolis of Jacksonville.

The farmer who makes two blades of grass grow where there was only one must use a little fertilizer and judgment in locating his crops. An analysis of the soil will show what is the best fertilizer for that particular soil, and in this way the farmer will know his business. There is more science necessary in good farming than in most other branches of industry, yet a man would not be engaged to purchase cedar lumber who was not able to tell cedar from pine.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh That Contain Mercury,

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

Sold by druggists. Price 75c per bottle.

Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

A FEW QUESTIONS.

What does The Time-Union mean by charging the State Board of Education with a breach of trust in the University matter? Had Lake City a divine right to the school? Was it not an open field and a fair fight, and did not Gainesville win in a fair contest? Are the personal interests of Lake City paramount to the education of our youth? If the courts kill the law, where is Lake City benefited? The Legislature in extraordinary or regular session would doubtless re-enact the law and Gainesville would win more easily than before. Is Lake City toting fair under defeat? We don't expect The Times-Union to answer all these questions at once and judging the future by the past it will ignore all of them. That paper believes in the majority rule, when it is with the majority.—Levy Times-Democrat.

SONGS IN THE NIGHT.

(MARIE CONWAY).

Written for The Savannah (Ga.) Press.

I was tired and spent with toiling,
And weary with grief and care,
Till the simple burden of living
Seemed almost too great to bear;
And, so, in the midnight hour,
I looked at the sky above,
And my soul grew faint in the shadows,
And I doubted my Father's love.

For deep clouds shrouded the heavens,
Not one star shone in the sky;
And I doubted if God could hear me,
He seemed so far and high.
Had then, in the darkest hour,
A bird's song, sudden and sweet,
And weighty with tender promise,
Rang up from the city street.

A caged bird singing in darkness,
It fell on my heart like dew;
It wiped out the bitter doubtings,
And brought back the good and true.
It taught me a tender lesson,
Of faith that can grow so high
That it gives from a midnight prison
A song to the sullen sky.

And I said, oh, my heart look upward!
Let us learn of the dear bird's song
To hope when the sky is darkest,
To suffer, and serve, and be strong.
It is easy to hope in the sunshine,
It is easy to sing in the light,
But braver to trust in the darkness,
And nobler to sing in the night.

We will learn, oh, my heart, through sorrow,
We are nearer the heart of God,
When we walk through the valley of shadow
And lean on his staff and his rod.
We will wait and work in the darkness
And watch for the dawning light,
And, sure that His love surrounds us,
We can give Him a song in the night.

In the first issue of The Jacksonville Sun, which appears Saturday, will be an article by Governor Broward on "The Pardoning of Criminals." It is hoped that the article will relieve the minds of some who are anxious to have every man hung who is convicted on the most flimsy evidence, for the gratification of having a public and legal hanging.

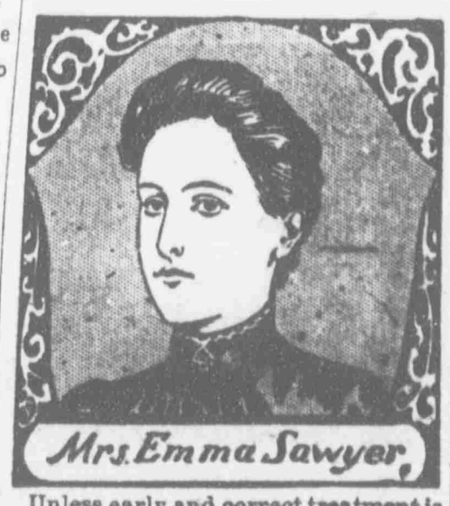
KIDNEY TROUBLES

Increasing Among Women, But Sufferers Need Not Despair

THE BEST ADVICE IS FREE

Of all the diseases known, with which the female organism is afflicted, kidney disease is the most fatal, and statistics show that this disease is on the increase among women.



Mrs. Emma Sawyer.

Unless early and correct treatment is applied the patient seldom survives when once the disease is fastened upon her. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the most efficient treatment for kidney troubles of women, and is the only medicine especially prepared for this purpose.

When a woman is troubled with pain or weight in loins, backache, frequent, painful or scalding urination, swelling of limbs or feet, swelling under the eyes, an uneasy, tired feeling in the region of the kidneys or notices a brick-dust sediment in the urine, she should lose no time in commencing treatment with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as it may be the means of saving her life.

For proof, read what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for Mrs. Sawyer.

"I cannot express the terrible suffering I had to endure. A derangement of the female organs developed nervous prostration and a serious kidney trouble. The doctor attended me for a year, but I kept getting worse, until I was unable to do anything, and I made up my mind I could not live. I finally decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as a last resort, and I am to-day a well woman. I cannot praise it too highly, and I tell every suffering woman about my case." Mrs. Emma Sawyer, Conyers, Ga.

Quite a slick trick was tried there a few days ago, but did not succeed well in Starke. A plausible young man visited the different homes, offering to enlarge any one of their photos free of charge. After securing what orders he could, another one followed securing frames for their pictures at a fancy price, and assured them that no picture would be enlarged unless a frame was bought.

Guilty of murder in the first degree was the verdict of the jury in the case of Sim Jackson, the negro who brutally murdered his wife at Evaville some years ago. The negro was tried at St. Augustine, Wednesday, and the evidence was so convincing that there was not the slightest hope of even mitigating the crime. No recommendation for mercy accompanied the verdict, and the death penalty will no doubt be imposed.

The surest thing on earth to get a man's system "out of whack" is heavy, soggy bread, which is caused by several reasons: First, the material may not be good; second, the cooking may be poor. The best flour in the world will make the heaviest bread if improperly mixed or cooked. WE USE THE BEST FLOUR and our "long suit" is knowing how to mix and bake it. Our bread does not cost any more than home-made, and in many instances it is so much more palatable.

RICH CANNOT AFFORD CHILDREN

Better Class Have Too Much Taxes to Pay, Says Woman.

New York, Nov. 16.—"The better class of people in New York cannot afford families. They have too much to pay in taxes to support the large families of the thoughtless poor."

This was the bomb which Mrs. S. B. Corey exploded yesterday at the Society for Political Study in a resume of the evils patent now New Yorkers stand, created the greatest sensation in the society's history.

"New York property owners," said Mrs. Cory, "pay increasingly large taxes every year, due mainly to the enormous immigration. 'Who, may I ask, 'would wan tto pay taxes to educate children that should never have been brought into the world? Why should the thrifty pay for the shiftless?"

"I am not so un-Christian as to say the children who come here cannot be cared for; but just so long as the taxpayers pay for expensive play grounds, etc., the children of the poor will increase like rabbits in a burrow. No wonder our houses of refuge and reformatories are filled."

THE GIANT CAUCASUS

A REGION OF GLOOM AND TERROR AND DESOLATION.

The Strange Mixture of Races Dating Back From Immemorial Antiquity That Peoples the Slopes of These Snow Capped Mountains.

The traveler who should seek to cross from the southern plains of Russia over into Persia or Arabia by the land between the Caspian and the Black seas would find himself confronted by a sight which for gloom and terror has hardly any equal in the world, writes W. B. Hodgson in the London News. Rising sheer from the vast arid plain, like a great foam crested billow about to break on a desolate beach, a billow 10,000 feet high and 800 miles long, the snow capped Caucasus stretches across from sea to sea with a dreadful, threatening, savage majesty of mien.

Its peaks are not so high as many of the Alps, it has not the projecting spurs and isolated, craggy heights whose groupings give new and beautiful views at every step. It is just an immense mountain chain, an unbroken fold or crease on the earth's surface. Though the Alps have higher peaks the lowest pass across the Caucasus is nearly double the height of the Alpine crossing places. The Caucasus has no lakes, only turbid, muddy rivers flowing from the ice fields of its central ridge. Even these are missing in the east, where the ridge lowers toward the Caspian.

But the terror and desolation of the Causasus forever kept apart the peoples to the north and south. On the one hand civilizations rose and fell—the Babylonian, the Assyrian, the Greek, the Egyptian, the Roman, the republics of the middle ages—but to the north the great plains were ever inhabited by the wild, lawless nomads. And so from the very beginnings of time the Causasus has stayed the human tide, and, as conquering races swept all before them below, the weak, the peaceable, the unfit, have been driven higher and higher into inaccessible gorges and wild, bog covered valleys.

"A strange mixture of races, dating back from immemorable antiquity, has been washed up like surf on to the slopes of these giant mountains. The Udi, the Kurin, the Avar, the Tush, belong to races that perished before Europe was discovered. Seven languages are spoken in the Caucasus, each unintelligible to the tribes using the rest. Some of them are related to the early tongues of Europe; others have no known affinities and seem to be among the languages of Babel that did not catch on."

Here amid these mountains we have the ghosts of ancient peoples who have gone under in the world struggle. There may well be tribesmen here whose ancestor was driven high by the flood and settled within sight of Arat and his cousin, Noah. There are still tribes who array themselves in helmets and chain armor and carry spears like those of 3,000 years ago. Others have strange ritual practices that have come down from the dawn of the world, mingling their pagan rites with worship of the "Christ God" and the angels of the river, the forest and the mountain. They have blood feuds which go on for generations, like those of Corsica in the past.

It is a mistake to suppose that Russia took the Caucasus by a general warlike movement. There was no need. Divided by religion into Christians, Mohammedans and pagans, divided by languages which made them mutually unintelligible, the tribes of this strange museum of bygone races could take no united action.

Throughout the first three-quarters of the nineteenth century Russia was employed in absorbing the Caucasus piece by piece. Only two of the Caucasian races made anything like strong resistance. In the east a Mohammedan prophet, Shamyl of the Avar stock, which overran a great part of Europe in the seventh century and was only finally conquered by Charlemagne, led the Leghians of Daghestan in a religious war against Russia. Crafty, daring and fertile in resource, occupying mountain slopes cut by impassable gorges, Shamyl was believed by his followers to have a charmed life. Only when the Russians built forts and military roads and gradually inclosed him at enormous expense did Shamyl surrender at his castle of Gunib in 1859. He passed some years of honorable captivity near Moscow and was then allowed, as a devout Mohammedan, to end his days in peace at Mecca.

Very different was the story of the Circassians, or Circassians, who opposed Russia in the western section of the Caucasus. The Circassians were chiefly the peaceable race of whose fair haired captive princesses in the harems of the east our boyish dreams are full. Warlike, splendid horsemen and marksmen, they lived almost entirely by pillage. In 1864 they submitted and Russia, knowing them to be unmanageable in the mountains, gave them the choice of coming down into the plains or emigrating into Turkish territory. They chose the latter course and were welcomed by the sultan, but on their arrival at the Black sea ports to meet them long after the proper time large numbers perished of hardship and disease. Some were settled in Armenia, others in Bulgaria, others in various parts of Asia Minor, and wherever they went there has been trouble since.

Varying Weight of the Body.

A physician points out that several fallacies are common with regard to the weight of the human body. The man who congratulates himself on his gain of several pounds in weight in a given period may have no cause for rejoicing, for he may be under a delusion. Very few persons, says the investigator, have any correct idea of their own weight. As a matter of fact, the weight of the body is continually changing owing to innumerable influences. On a warm day, after breakfast, a man will lose more than a third of a pound per hour. Seventy per cent of the body contains water, and its weight varies constantly. The inference to be drawn from the loss or gain of a pound or two may be mistrusted. Fluctuations of a few ounces are a sign that the body is in a healthy state.

Grunt-Who-Will Tower.

Anne, the duchess in wooden shoes, who brought Brittany in the pocket of her wedding gown to her husband, the king of France, kept the government for herself, and when the bishop of St. Malo protested against the stronghold which she built to cow the too independent Maloons she carved on her tower the irreverent inscription, which may still be read there, "Grunt who will, so shall it be; 'tis my pleasure," and the tower "Grunt-Who-Will" (Quicqu'en grogue) it remains to this day.

Her Little Composition.

A class was reciting in a school.

"Who can give me," said the teacher, "a sentence in which the words 'bitter end' are used?"

Up jumped a little girl excitedly. "I can, teacher. 'The cat ran under the bureau and the dog ran after her and bit her end.'"

Better Than the Toothpick.

We are told that the health and prosperity of the teeth are greatly promoted by the prompt use of the toothpick immediately after eating and that this being so only a "Miss Prim" or an "Aunt Betty" would presume to object to it. We reply that if this is so the person afflicted should at once repair to the dressing room and, away from the observation of others, should relieve his teeth of their fatal burden. It is advisible, however, that he should employ for the purpose the highly hygienic dental floss. This is pronounced by all good dentists far less harmful to the teeth than the ubiquitous toothpick, which has, as we firmly believe, pushed its way into pretty good society by false pretenses and a species of blackmail.—Leslie's Weekly.

Avoid Alum Baking Powders

"I am very strongly of the opinion that the use of alum and salts of alumina in food should be prohibited. It is well understood that the constant use of alum compounds exerts both a deleterious effect upon the digestive organs and an irritation of the internal organs after absorption."

EDWARD S. WOOD, M.D., Professor of Chemistry, Harvard Medical School, Boston.

It must be remembered that when alum baking powders are used in making bread, biscuit or cake, a portion of the alum is carried unchanged into the stomach.

Ten-cent, twenty-five-cent, cent-an-ounce powders contain alum.

I wish to give you the result of my experience in using Davis' 100 per cent Pure Paint. Some five years ago I painted Miss Sullivan's house on North McDough street, this city, with Davis' light green. I pledge you my word that at the present time the surface on this house is as good and sound as the day the paint was applied. This has been my experience with a great many other residences that I have painted with Davis' 100 per cent Pure Paint, but I give this particular instance as the surface on Miss Sullivan's house was extremely bad and I am surprised that the paint has lasted in the manner it has. It proves to me conclusively that Davis' 100 per cent Pure Paint is all that you claim for it and I do not believe there is another paint today on the American market that can equal Davis' 100 per cent Pure Paint in durability, covering capacity or appearance.

Royal Baking Powder

Absolutely Pure

The Government Tests

prove Royal Baking Powder pure and healthful, made from grape cream of tartar, absolutely free from alum or phosphatic acids and highest of all baking powders in leavening strength.

The Royal Baking Powder costs only a fair price per pound, and is cheaper and better at its price than any baking powder in the world. It makes pure, clean and healthful food.

Avoid Alum Baking Powders

"I am very strongly of the opinion that the use of alum and salts of alumina in food should be prohibited. It is well understood that the constant use of alum compounds exerts both a deleterious effect upon the digestive organs and an irritation of the internal organs after absorption."

EDWARD S. WOOD, M.D., Professor of Chemistry, Harvard Medical School, Boston.

It must be remembered that when alum baking powders are used in making bread, biscuit or cake, a portion of the alum is carried unchanged into the stomach.

Ten-cent, twenty-five-cent, cent-an-ounce powders contain alum.
